

3 Day MDP on “Art of connecting with people and building relationships”

Three-day Management Development Program (MDP) for employees of Power Grid Corporation of India was conducted online from 5th to 7th November 2020 on “Art of connecting with people and building relationships”. More than 60 participants attended the MDP from various States of India.

The objective of MDP was to make the participants aware about the various factors that affect the team and performance as a whole. Topics like Interpersonal Relationships, Art of Communicating the Right Way Communication Styles, The power of body language, Personal Branding, Networking within and outside the Organization using Technology, Communication during Negotiation & Conflict, Team Building and Trust Building were taken by faculty members of Department of Management Technology.