

ECPL

(Electronics and Communication Premier League)

Date:- October 8, 2023

Place:- Basketball Ground, RCOEM, Nagpur

The highly anticipated Electronics and Communication Premier League (ECPL) made its grand return on October 8, 2023, at the resplendent RCOEM Basketball Ground in Nagpur. This year's event surpassed all expectations, radiating enthusiasm and fostering a sense of camaraderie among participants. Organized once again by the ECE Department and Communique Student's Society, the ECPL was a testament to the dedication and teamwork of the organizers, guided by Prof. Prasheel Thakre, President Sania Sabu, and Secretary Harshal Nawlakhe.

A Grand Auction Event:

As a prelude to the action-packed tournament, the auction held on October 5 and 6, 2023, was an event filled with anticipation and excitement. This year, we had eight fresh teams, each endowed with a unique identity and captained by enthusiastic leaders. The captains were entrusted with a substantial budget to acquire players based on their cricketing prowess, thereby assembling formidable squads. Notable highlights of the auction included the remarkable purchase of Aryan Deogade (3rd Year), the highest-paid male player and Anushka Alkari (4th Year), the highest-paid female player.

Ayush Shah and Hritik Pandey were the auctioneers who oversaw the auction for ECPL 2023.

The event saw an impressive total of 120 participants, both male and female, who displayed remarkable energy and sportsmanship throughout the day. Each team engaged in two spirited matches against the others, leading to the selection of the top four teams for the semi-finals.

These teams were:

- Phantom Blues
- Gladiators
- Enforcers
- Green Hawks
- Whitecaps
- Ascendants
- Mustangs
- Blazing Bluez

ECPL Winner - Team phantom blues

Runner up - Team ascendants

Man of the match (Final) - Aditya Shahu

Best batsman (M) - Aditya Shahu

Best batsman (W) - Yashaswi Wahie

Best bowler (M) - Mayank Rai

Best bowler (W) - Dixita Hawelkar

Before the semi-finals, a well-deserved break provided an opportunity for players to relax and recharge, fostering a sense of unity and camaraderie among the participants.
