"The future belongs to those who believe in the power of their dreams". The third day of the induction program started off on a positive note, filled with zeal and curiosity for the day's commencement.

The hosts for the day were Rajveer Singh, Technical Incharge, and Hrushikesh Dagwar, Public Relations and Marketing Head, SRC. They briefed the students about the day's proceedings and cheered them up with some interaction.

Mrs Anusaya Kale Chhabrani was the guest for the third day of the program. She is a senior volunteer at CMCA, president at Swacch Association and Civil Lines association secretary at Paryavaran Prerna, Maharashtra and together we can, Nagpur; para legal volunteer with District court, member of Paryavaran Prerna, Vidarbha and member of garden club. She has carried out numerous campaigns, like saving the Bharatvan urban forest, plantation of 5000 trees at Bhandewadi dump yard, saving Ajni's Vann urban forest and many more. She has been an active citizen, carrying out campaigns and activities for the nation and its people.

She was welcomed at the session with a sapling by Dr.SanjogtaMeshram, first year incharge. After that, Dr.Juhi Rai introduced her to the audience. A token of gratitude was presented to Mrs Anusaya Kale Chhabaria by Dr.RashmiShahu, Dean Of students.

The students were intrigued with the theme for the session, as it was something different from the usual, it was about having a social aspect in each individual's life and about contributing towards the nation, but in another way. She talked to the students about the society, the issues, asked them if they had volunteered, what their idea of a good citizen was and their thoughts on social work and activity. It was an interesting session as the students had varying ideas and inputs on the topics and left no stone unturned in being a part of the discussion and expressing their opinions. Healthy discussions and innovative ideas echoed in the dome along with strong opinions and genuine queries.

A vote of thanks for Mrs. Anusaya Kale Chhabria was presented by Dr.Juhi Rai for the enlightening and an eye opening session. Thereafter, the students proceeded for the break.

Second half [post break]

Time: 1:00 PM

After the break, ICC presiding officer, Prof.RichaKhandelwal informed the students about the committee, the safety of women in the campus and guided the students about reporting of any such incidents, if taking place to the internal complaint committee. The students were also told about the training and placement cell, by Prof.Kaushik Roy, Dean training and placement. He talked about the necessary skills, the expected capabilities and academic records.

The enthusiasm of the students was high as they heard about Ramdeobaba College Engineers for Environment Forum or REEF. Dr.SwaroopalakshmiMudliar briefed the students about REEF, its main objectives and workings. Further information about the clubs like nature trails, collection drives, etc. was told by members of reef. Next, Dr.Amruta Pandey, from the department of Physical Education and sports told the students about the overview of the sports department, NSS, and NCC. The secretary of NSS took over to the dais to elaborate upon the events of NSS, the workings, the benefits and opportunities.

Thereafter, the sports secretaries, RCOEM talked about the various committees, the branch cups, the various sports which the college participates in and the facilities for the sports activities. They also catered to the queries of the students regarding the different sports and participation.

We called it a day when the National Cadet Corps stood before the students to enlighten them about NCC, the requirements, and the arenas that they focus on. Some of the cadets shared their personal experiences of NCC along with college life and answered their queries as well. It was indeed a very informative and eventful day.
