The second day of the induction began on a warm note with the students all geared up with their inquisitiveness about the other events and clubs. The Students' Representative Council along with the dean of students, Dr. Rashmi Shahu were present at the occasion for the eventful day.

The hosts for the day were Sejal Randive, Student Welfare Executive and Raunak Malapure, Public Relations and Marketing Head, SRC. They talked to the students about their first day, and told them about the speaker for the day.

Mr. Vinay Chawla was the guest of the day. A passionate International motivator and facilitator on a mission to empower youth, founder of Enlighten the Soul – An international enterprise into motivation manufacturing and was awarded as a Youth Motivator and Trainer under an initiative of HRD Ministry, India. Associated with Tata Institute of Social Sciences (TISS – Bombay).

He was welcomed at the session with a sapling by Dr. Sanjogta Meshram. After that, Dr. Priti Mangrulkar told the audience about him, his journey and his story. A token of gratitude was presented to Mr. Vinay Chawla by Dr. Rashmi Shahu, Dean Of students. The dome was energized by the interesting and fun activities, with which Mr. Vinay Chawla begun. He put enthusiasm in the students with his stories, and his fun games. He then presented a short clip and later told the students about the topic of the day, "Unlocking Campus Life" where he unfolded the 4 step method, the do's and don'ts' and took the dome with surprise by his unique stories. The students enjoyed his talk and sat with smiles on their faces throughout the session.

Second Half (post break)

Time: 1:00 PM

The session resumed with the hosts welcoming our library in charge, Dr. Cynita Christy. She talked to the students about the facilities provided by the library, the procedure to access the facilities and the provisions. She briefed the students about the various protocols of the library and explained to them, the available books and all the other functions.

Next, the Readers' Reverie Literary club took over to carry out their induction. It was started off by a brief introduction about the club by Yash Ingolikar, Literary Club Co-ordinator, SRC and was carried forward by the members of the club. They told the students about the club, its functions, and its various events and also presented some of their own poems. It was an intriguing session as they held various quizzes, rapid fires and even personality tests. The session concluded with the results of the personality test and a vote of thanks by Yash.

The second club for the day was the photography club. The club induction was led by Gaurav Singh, Photography Club Coordinator. The session began with the after movie of "Pratishruti" and he interacted with the students along with the other photography club members. They spoke about the perks, the learnings and the opportunities provided by the club. The session was fruitful as the students enjoyed the caption contests and other activities. It concluded with a vote of thanks by the club.

The day marked its end with a short note thanking the students for being enthusiastic throughout the proceedings and a brief about the upcoming events and activities by our hosts for the day.
